Mr. J. B. Collier has been quite sick from an attack of grip.

Mrs. S. P. Grant who has been quite sick is reported very much improved.

The Womans Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. P. Bush.

Miss Alice Hudson Rigney is a victim of that prevailing epidemic, the mumps.

On March seventh comes the festival of Saint Patrick especially celebrated by the Roman Catholic church and the Irish people in general.

The Mary Walker Price Chapter of the U. D. C. will meet Monday afternoon March 14th at the home of Mesdames Mat'ie P. and Fred Frisbie.

Mr. O. L. Hammack a prominent business man of Paint Lick, paid this office a pleasant call Tuesday. He is a splendid man and we are always glad to see him in town.

Arthur Hurt, white shot and slightly wounded Jim Beazley, colored, with a pistol at Lowell last week. Sheriff Ballard was promptly on the ground to arrest Hurt but he escaped and has not been apprehended.

In a dispute over a business settlement Rube Grant shot and slightly wounded Lewis Doty with a shot gun at Buckeye last week. A warrant was promptly sworn out for the offender, but up to this date he has not been arrested. Both parties are negroes.

The Bible School Institute met three consecutive days Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Christian church. Revs. Hopkins and Frisbie, two noted Sunday school workers were present and by their aid gave interesting programs as well as some very instructive talks.

The legislature adjourns Tuesday March 15th. Some important legislation has been enacted, but much more could have been accomplished, had not the wise Solons spent so much valuable time in preventing the passage of the county Unit Bill.

Mr. W. A. Arnold received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Hugh Hempill, of Nicholasville. The deceased was a most estimable citizen and high-toned Christian gentleman and a wealthy farmer, of Jessamine county, having recently sold his handsome farm. He was twice married, his last wife being Miss Rella Arnold, a sister of W. A. and W. R. Arnold of this place, besides a widow and two daughters survive.

Little Elizabeth Logan Simpson the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simpson continues very ill. She was taken to a Lexington infirmary Wednesday morning.

By a typographical error, we stated in our last issue that the price paid by E. F. Spears & Son for the Mercer County Hemp was 24 cents when it should have been 54 cents per pound.

Attorney R. H. Tomlinson presented to the Council last Tuesday night an ordinance for a long distance telephone franchise. The matter will come up for discussion on next meeting night so every one should be present at this meeting.

Haselden Brothers have sold eight manure spreaders this season. This strongly indicates that the farmers of the county mean to keep up their farms. Barnyard manure is the richest fertilizer that can be had, and with a spreader the farmer can get the full benefit of it on his farm.

Congressman Harvey Helm was up to see us Monday feeling good every minute over his prospect for re-election. Mr. Helm has made a good record in Congress during the two terms he has served the people of this district and has many friends in this county who will assist him in his endeavor to go back to Washington.

The great stallion, "Bonney Rogers" recently purchased by S. E. Dunn, of Delen Miss., was shipped Tuesday. The people of Mississippi by breeding to a Stallion like this immediately go into the greatest blood line Kentucky has ever produced. This horse won a contest at Columbus Ohio against 8 of Kentucky's best finishing in 2:08.

The Democratic Committee of the Eighth Congressional District met in Nicholasville March 3rd and fixed April 30th as the date on which to hold a primary in this district. Hon. William Jennings Price, the prospective candidate from Boyle county favored a primary to be held in September claiming that the early date would not give him a fair time to get over the district.

Popular Appointment.

His term of appointment having expired, Hon. J. Mott Rothwell retires as Master Commissioner for the Garrard Circuit Court, after six years of efficient service, and Judge Sautley has appointed attorney, W. I. Williams to succeed Mr. Rothwell. Wills Probated.

The wills of Mr. E. M. Ballou and Mr. Isaiah Jackson, deceased, were probated last court day. Mr. Ballou left his entire estate to his wife, Mrs. Nellie Ballou who was named as executrix without bond.

Mr. Jackson left his estate to his wife for life to be divided among his five children, at her death. Mr. S. N. Morford was named as executor.

Killing at Berea Kentucky

Sam Baker was shot and killed and Marcus B. Bowlin proprietor of the Commercial Hotel at Berea, was badly injured in a fight at the hotel. It is stated that Baker and his brother, Burnam Baker raised a disturbance and when Bowlin tried to quiet them Burnam Baker shot Bowlin who then retreated to a rear room and returned with a shot gun and killed Sam Baker. Burnam Baker was not injured and has escaped.

Sautley.

Mr. George B. Sautley after an illness of some seven weeks of typhoid fever died at his home in Stanford, Monday morning at 10 o'clock. He was a son of Judge M. C. Sautley, was 28 years of age and one of the most gifted and accomplished young lawyers in Kentucky. He was a splendid gentleman in every respect and had many friends in this county who regret to hear of his death. The funeral services were held in Stanford Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

Statement.

On being asked as to the dispatch from Washington that he had thought it over and decided to accept the District Attorneyship Hon. Lewis L. Walker makes the following statement: "I have withdrawn from the contest and will remain in Lancaster to practice law."

Mr. Walker is one of the best lawyers in Kentucky and is very popular here. His many friends are glad that he has decided to remain in Lancaster.

Andrew Jackson.

On March 15th comes the one hundred and forty third anniversary of the birth of Andrew Jackson. He was our 7th President and really the first one, a self-made man, in the full sense of the word. His administration marked an epoch not only in political history, but also in material, intellectual and social matters. During his second term the national debt was extinguished and the original number of the States were doubled by the admission of Arkansas and Michigan. He died in Nashville, June 8th, 1845. May we honor his memory.

Totten.

Judge William M. Totten died in Stanford March 3rd. He was 86 years of age having for many years been a resident of Lancaster but for the past two years made his home with his son, Mr. J. L. Totten, of Stanford. He has two children now living in this county, Mesdames Mason Pullins, of Paint Lick, and Mike Ray, of Buckeye and to them much sympathy is extended.

Judge Totten was police Judge here for several years and had many friends in Lancaster and Garrard county.

The funeral services were conducted at the grave at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon by Elder Joseph Ballou, interment in the Lancaster cemetery.

Dunn.

Mrs. Margaret Letcher Dunn age 74 years, died at the home of her son, Mr. Cooper Dunn, of Chattanooga, after a brief illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Dunn spent much of her time here with her only daughter, Mrs. W. B. Mason and was held in the highest esteem by all, being a most consistent member of the Presbyterian church and when health permitted she was seldom absent from services.

Several sisters and brothers survive, besides an extensive relationship throughout the State mourn her death. But to those most deeply bereft, her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Mason and son, Cooper Dunn, of Chattanooga is offered sincere condolence. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the residence of her son-in-law, W. B. Mason, conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. C. Brown with interment in the Lancaster cemetery.

Petty.

Mrs. Elizabeth Petty whose extreme illness was noted last week, died at the home of her daughter in Decatur, Ill., where she had been residing for several years. Mrs. Petty until a few years ago was a resident of Lancaster having been born and reared here, being a Miss Romans, of this vicinity. Four daughters Miss Scotta Petty, of this place, Mrs. Samuel Totten, Mrs. Jennie Brown and Mrs. Ed. Thurman all of Illinois, two sons, Joe and Mack are surviving children. One brother, Mr. W. J. Romans and two sisters, Mesdames Sebastian and Cotton also of this place mourn her death. Another sister, Mrs. Jane Jennings died about a year ago. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the residence of W. J. Romans, conducted by Eld. F. M. Tindler and the interment in the Lancaster cemetery.

Another family bowed down in grief a home made desolate by the death of an excellent Christian mother, whose presence can never again be felt, whose council and loving attention has ceased forever. To the sorrowing ones is extended much sympathy.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce Hon. Harvey Helm a candidate to succeed himself in Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Grand Jury

Our public weal depends largely upon the action of the twelve men who take an oath to constitute the grand jury of Garrard county, for any one of the three terms of the circuit court held each year.

At least nine members must vote favorable in all cases before any indictment can be had, and no criminal can be convicted of a felony without he is first indicted. The prosecution for misdemeanors may be instituted in the inferior courts but none of these courts have the facilities for investigating the acts of the wrong doers, as has the grand jury. The public properly looks to this body to investigate and originate the prosecution of all important criminal acts. There are many crimes, both felonies and misdemeanors, for which indictment is ever returned, because there can not be sufficient evidence secured upon which to base an indictment against anyone, although the criminal act may be well known. However, if the grand jury be sufficiently vigilant in doing its duty, it is well seldom occur. It is our information that the violation of law is not so general in the county as formerly. Yet the inference is rather convincing from the affidavits reported, that the present grand jury has a right fertile field for investigation.

A felony committed is usually the outgrowth of a series of preceding misdemeanors and a thorough investigation will usually bring these offenses to light. The grand jury is safeguarded by every means known to the law. Its actions are secret. No member has the right to reveal a word or detail a single act of himself or any fellow member. There is, therefore, never any excuse for a member of the grand jury failing or refusing to do his duty under his oath, without fear or favor. If there is any breaking the law in your community and you are in favor of good order, just make it a point to communicate the facts to the member of this body from your locality, or tell your prosecuting attorneys about it that they may see that the case is fully presented for indictment.

The abundance of our natural resources has long been our pride and boast but we have esteemed them inexhaustible and scattered them like chaff. First, our game has been want only sacrificed, think of the millions of fish that have been destroyed by blasting and by the pouring forth of fish laden waters from irrigation ditches upon the plains and the conversion of rivers into sewers for the removal of the filth of cities. Again, think of the artesian wells that have been tapped and permitted to run dry. Oil has poured forth in like manner and our natural gas, an ideal fuel, has been treated as a nuisance to be destroyed.

As we know our chief source of heat and power is coal and our supply is estimated to equal a cube eight miles long, wide and high. We utilize but one-half of the coal, leaving the other half in the ground and it is estimated that our soft coal will last but a hundred years and our hard coal but half of that time. Another resource that we should guard is that of our water ways. Railway leaders, like President Hill, admit that railroads can no longer handle our traffic and must be supplemented by the rivers. Unlike the railroads however the rivers are owned by the people and transportation by water is the cheapest in the world so can be made a potent factor in regulating railway rates.

Let us pass from our water ways to our water powers and in future time as in many things history will repeat itself and we will adopt the means and ways of our forefathers in using water power all over this great country. With our fuel supplies, wood, coal, oil and gas ascending in smoke, the question of our future source of power becomes pressing. That source must be found in electricity and that can most easily and cheaply be generated by means of water-power. But if water-powers are to be made effective, the equable flow of the streams must be maintained and alternations of high and low water avoided. So let us reflect and help establish and prosecute the policies essential to our nation's well being by using our ballot to place and keep in power men who regard our resources as a heritage to be conserved and wisely used rather than as a mine to be exploited or a treasure-trove to be looted.

Be cheerful. Make it a point to be happy just as you make it a point to be neat, to be properly dressed, to be well fed. One cannot be truly happy without that deep, calm contentment flowing from his soul and producing that harmony of mind and body that tends to better health and a more vigorous mental condition.

All the world loves the happy man. One is attracted to a sunny disposition as naturally as a flower turns to the sun. Light, for its brightness is conducive to growth, and through its life giving properties one breaks out of the narrow bounds of self into larger things.

Then away with your pessimism! Time is too short to dwell on the dark side of things. Forget the worries, forget the disappointments, forget all misce and everything that starves and cramps the soul. Look upon life not as a hardship, but as a glorious privilege, wherein each one should "make good."

Issue of April 8th.

We believe that our readers are no less interested in the general education of the public than is the editor of the Record. Our educational issue of April 8th will have much value in information on this subject. We wish to urge our readers, especially those who reside in Garrard County to see that as many people read this special issue of the paper as possible. We are going to do our best to make it interesting and instructive. It is our earnest desire that the rising generation be educated, and we are going to do our part in bringing it about. Assist us in the effort by reading carefully the issue of April 8th.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank all our friends who were so kind and thoughtful to us in the late sickness of our Father, Thompson Family.

Evangelistic Services.

The pastor, Rev. C. Connor Brown will begin a series of Evangelistic Services at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath night, March 13. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services which will be held each evening at 7:30 o'clock. The subjects will be as follows:

Sabbath Evening, "Prepare to meet thy God."
Monday Evening, "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God."
Tuesday Evening, "Trial before the Great Judge."
Wednesday Evening, "Weighed in God's Balances."

NEGRO KILLED AT BRYANTSVILLE Shot Twice With a Double Barrel Shot Gun.

On last Friday at 10 o'clock Marcus Jennings aged 42 years shot and instantly killed Gen. McCowan a negro working for Dr. W. M. Elliott. McCowan was seated in front of Dickerson's store when Jennings came up the place and asking "is that you George?" opened fire, McCowan fell after the first shot and crawled on his hands a few feet, when Jennings shot him again behind the ear, the last shot is said to have been the fatal one.

It is claimed that the parties had had previous trouble.

Sheriff Robinson arrested Jennings and placed him in jail here.

McCowan had a small pistol in his hip pocket. Jennings also had a pistol when arrested.

Circuit Court.

Judge P. M. McRoberts, of Stanford, having been appointed special judge by the Governor, convened the regular March term of the Garrard Circuit Court on Monday.

The sad news of the death of Hon. George B. Sauley a prominent attorney of the Stanford Bar, a son of the present Judge M. C. Sauley, came on Monday morning and on this account Judge Sauley was unable to be at his post.

As usual the large crowd which attends the first day of court was present Monday. Little or no business was done, further than empanelling the Pe and Grand Juries. The court could have made no better selection for foreman of the Grand Jury than Mr. E. C. McWhorter, of Paint Lick.

Judge McRoberts charge to the Grand Jury was a strong and impressive presentation of the duties the jury owes, not only to itself but society as well. He called special attention to the violation of the local option and gambling laws and urged them to return indictments wherever the facts justified, without regard to the individual. Since circumstances require a special Judge, the Bar and court officers are glad to have Judge McRoberts, who has many friends and relatives here, who are always happy to see this learned lawyer and affable gentleman in our county. A number of murder and other felony cases are on the criminal docket but the civil docket is small.

The Hon Charles A. Hardin, our Commonwealth Attorney was on hand Monday morning ready to do his duty in that fair, honorable and able manner that has been characteristic of his previous services. This is the beginning of Mr. Hardin's second term and during the previous one he has made a friend of every person in Garrard county. Our people are always happy to see the Commonwealth Attorney, whom we believe to be the best in the State.

C. Sauley, of the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit, a member of the Lincoln county bar and of this bar, was a young man of unusual ability and attainments; a forceful and eloquent speaker; "efficient in business"; thoroughly devoted to the interests of his clients; conducting and winning cases of magnitude at an age in life, and practice, at which the vast majority of young attorneys are struggling for position at the bar.

His legal attainments, and his intellect; his ready grasp and quick understanding of the intricate questions of law; his prudence, in all its branches; his clear reasoning and logical deductions, from established premises; gained for him a prestige rarely attained by one so young in years, and practice, marked him as an attorney of unusual promise, and an ornament to the profession of the State.

To his father, family and all those who are aggrieved our hearts go out in sympathy, and ask for them that consolation which comes only from on High. Be it resolved that these resolutions be spread at large on the record books of this court, and that the court now adjourn until next Thursday in honor of George B. Sauley's memory.

A Tribute.

To William Jennings Oliver Dunlap who died February 17th, 1910:—

Near the old home where he first saw the light,
Our boy gave up his young life,
And the loved scenes that his infancy knew,
He left the world's trials and strife.

Behind him, the memories of boyhood and man,
Beyond him, the peace of repose,
With us, the regret for the one that we loved,
With him, the release from earth's woes.

His nature was kindly, his friendship was true,
Full many the hearts that he won:
Full many the comrades he left in the race,
Who mourn that his day's work is done.

When the war-cry resounded he rose to the call,
The post his thrill nerved his arm,
On the hill of San Juan, in the thick of the fray,
He sprang to the note of alarm.

A hero in battle, his record will stand,
"He knew not her halting nor fear,"
So when the great roll-call shall sound from on high,
May our soldier-boy answer, "I'm here."

Saved A Soldier's Life.
Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." For Coughs, Colds, La Grip, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough and lung trouble, its supreme, 50c 1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. E. McRoberts.

Obituary.

Died, at 5:15 February 26, 1910 Mrs. Zerelda Jane Brown, wife of A. B. Brown Sr., in her 82 year, of typhoid pneumonia after a lingering illness. Mrs. Brown was born in Garrard county December 19th, 1828, being the twin sister of Geo. E. Jennings, deceased. She was the daughter of Samuel B. and Resanna Jennings and has lived in this county all her life. Mr. Brown was twice married, the first time to Jas. Allen Stephens, who died in 1850, leaving her a widow with three daughters, one of whom died in infancy, the other, Malletta Stephens Drake died 33 years ago.

In 1855 she was married to A. B. Brown Sr., who survives. To this union were born six children, two sons and four daughters: Geo. F. Brown, of this county and J. H. Brown deceased; Mrs. W. S. Holman, of Aurora, Ind., Mrs. H. D. Arnold, Mineral Wells, Texas, and Miss Allie B. Brown, of Louisville.

Mrs. Brown was a beautiful christian character, was a full of good deeds and charitable to all. She was a kind neighbor and loved by all who knew her, none ever entered her home without a warm welcome nor left without feeling the warmth of a genuine hospitality, so characteristic of the people of her ancestry. Disease did not destroy the charm of a kind indulgent disposition, nor old age diminish her unselfish solicitude for her friends and loved ones. Adhering to the faith of her fathers, she united with the Christian church in early life and loved to attend its services when health permitted. While she has continued to enjoy the society of her friends and children, she has for several years, realized that her active life was over and with resignation awaited the Divine call from death.

As the death dew gathered on her marble brow, around her bedside gathered her boy and girls—always a boy and girls to her, though now grown to mature years with boys and girls around their own firesides. The life so long interwoven with theirs, with tearful eyes they watched as it slowly but surely passed over. The love of a mother for her children passeseth human understanding. Her daughters that gathered about the cot of this dying mother and so bravely fought the Death Angel, long ago passed out from the little home circle. Business cares and their own home circles have encroached upon their time, and may have robbed mother of their companionship, but she was ever the same, rejoicing in their success and grieving at their misfortunes. They may have grown away from her, but she never from them; they were still her girls. We know that years hence the memory of her unselfish devotion will make them better women and her precepts be their guiding star. Her presence will be missed but she has gone to join the one before. She often expressed herself as ready and willing to go any time the Master should call. Her death was peaceful and quiet. She has left her children the heritage of a beautiful Christian life. May she rest in peace.
